Athletics

Congratulations to Richard Wellington and Ross Goodwin who have been appointed Captains of Athletics for the 2016/2017 season. We wish them all the best, both as highly competitive athletes and captains!

Congratulations to Matt van Westenbrugge who is awarded half colours for Athletics for his competitive performances in u16 100m Hurdles this year.

Congratulations to Oliver Stewart, who won the Best Performance trophy for running an excellent 3000m at last week's Rondebosch Spring Meeting.

Cycling

Congratulations to Karl Prins who is awarded half colours for Cycling for his top results in downhill mountain biking.

Cricket

Captains for 2016/17

Congratulations to Michael Burton who is appointed captain of cricket for 2016/17, and to Richard Baikoff who is appointed vice-captain.

Colours (1st XI Cricket)

Congratulations to the following on being awarded full colours for cricket: Tyla Scarles (re-award), Max Newbury and Richard Baikoff.

Congratulations to the following on being awarded half-colours: George Meadows, Aydan Labuschagne and Jono Bird.

Rowing

Some of the Bishops crews took part in a 2km sprint regatta in Gauteng last weekend. It proved to be a very successful event with all Bishops crews doing well. It was the first opportunity for the crews to compete against Gauteng schools at altitude for the 2016/2017 season. Special mention can be made of the following crews:

U16A coxed 4 and the u15A Oct won silver, the u19second VIII and the u16 quad won bronze.

Nic McAdam rowed a fantastic sculls race straight after his team event. He came second and within striking distance of the SA record.

Tennis

The Inter-house Junior Tennis Singles took place on the 8th of November. White House won the Charles King Trophy by beating Mallett in the final by 12-2. Congratulations to Oliver Diggle and Robert Ferreira who are both in grade 8.

General

SRF

Ivan Stassen has been elected as the Student Representative Forum's Chairman for 2017. Tio Bakre has been elected as the Secretary. Congratulations to both boys.
