Music Certificates

The Bishops music boys did extremely well when they wrote the Royal Schools of Music grade 5 theory exam last year.

The following boys achieved a distinction for the exam (that is a mark above 90%).
Robert Dugmore, David Straughan, Andrew Low, Liam Foxcroft and Jody Williams.

The Bishops music department entered pupils for music exams in the Trinity College of London's Rock and Pop category. This is the first time that pupils have been entered into exams of a Rock or Pop nature and the candidates did exceptionally well.

Distinctions are awarded to:

Thomas Coombe - grade 2 drums, Rory Schram - grade 2 drums and Connor Price - grade 5 drums.
